

Examiner (Launceston, Tas. : 1900 - 1954), Wednesday 7 July 1937, page 8

---

MID-AIR CRASH ARCHERFIELD FATALITIES. BRISBANE, Tuesday. Giving evidence to-day at an inquest concerning the collision between two aeroplanes at the Archerfield aerodrome on June 19 last, as the result of which Miss Ethel Josephine Clara Tully and Mr. Jack Westlake Barrett were killed, the control officer at Archerfield, Andrew Beitch Lauchland, said that there must certainly have been negligence, but he would not like to ascribe the negligence to any particular pilot. Lauchland said that he was of the opinion that both Miss Tully and Mr. Barrett had been watching another 'plane. SUVA, July 6. Returning by the Martposa, M~r. Charles Chauvel, nephew of General Sir Harry Chauvel, stated that he had purchased from Frank Baker, Australian scenarist in Hollywood, a story of the Australian Light Horse entitled "For Services Rendered," and plans a big production in Australia.