

National Advocate (Bathurst, NSW : 1889 - 1954), Saturday 21 August 1937, page 2

---

'PLANE CRASH

Another Mishap At Archerfield Landing Gear Fails BRISBANE, Friday.

Due to a fault in the retractable undercarriage, a Seagull amphibian attached to H.M.A.S. Sydney, was badly damaged at Archerfield aerodrome today when the wheels failed to lock in the downward position as the machine was landing. The crew of three, Flying Officer A -r. Hick. Pilot sub-Lieut. W. Ross, an:'.
'

Telegraphs Bowden, escaped with a shaking. As the machine was about to lan.l the retractable undercarriage was let clown, but the wheels failed to lock and when they contacted with the '.round, they buckled back. The right wing was crumpled. A relief machine was then flown to 'he aerodrome for its crew to assist in dismantling the damaged 'plane to enable it to be taken back to the ship.