

Tweed Daily (Murwillumbah, NSW : 1914 - 1949), Tuesday 13 July 1937, page 5

---

INQUEST CONCLUDED

Double Plane Crash At Archerfield.

BRISBANE, Monday:— The inquest into the deaths of Jack Barrett and Esther Tully, who lost their lives when their planes collided at Archerfield on June 19, was concluded to-day. Further evidence was given regarding Miss Tully's plane striking Barrett's near the tail. Ernest Brunckhurst, flight superintendent of the Aero Club, stated that Miss Tully had the average skill of a person with 22 hours' solo experience. Barrett also was a good flier, with a record of 9 hours' solo flying.