Sunday Mail (Brisbane, Qld.: 1926 - 1954), Sunday 4 August 1940, page 1

Air Force Crash; None Hurt

TWO Wirraway planes of the Eoyal Australian Air Force were damaged in a collision at Arcberfield airport yesterday morning, but none of the, crews was injured. The collision occurred on the ground, probably as the result of a misunderstandine.' according to a statement issued last night by Central Area of the R.A.A.F., Sydney. One 'machine turned over on its nose, and bent its airscrew. The other' plane damaged a wing tip. The engines and equipment were not harmed. Both planes are expected to be out of service for* a fortnight. ': Picture— Page t. .

1 of 1 10/06/2022, 4:46 pm